No. C.589.—The Commissioner, Northern India Salt Revenue, is pleased to publish the following rules for the purchase and issue of unbagged salt in bulk from the sources at Khewra, Kalabagh and Warcha in the Punjab.

1. Applications for unbagged salt to be located in bulk will be received only from such persons or classes of persons and for consignments only for despatch from such of the above sources and to such destinations as the Commissioner, Northern India Salt Revenue, may from time to time by notice specify.

2. The Commissioner may at any time by notice direct that unbaged salt shall be issued only on the credit system (authorized by Act X of 1908) from stated sources or to stated persons or classes of persons or for consignment to certain destinations.

3. The duty, price, and loading charges will be the same as in the case of bagged salt, and applications will be received at Treasuries and post offices as prescribed in Notification C.-506, dated 8th July 1922. An application may not be made partly for bagged and partly for unbaged salt.

4. The application shall be made on the form of indent prescribed for bagged salt, and shall show all particulars required in the case of bagged salt, except that the word "unbagged" shall be entered in the several columns in foils 1, 2, and 3 requiring particulars as to bags; and when the salt is to be issued on credit, the words "On credit" shall be entered in place of particulars showing the payment of charges.

5. Unbagged salt will be booked only at owner's risk, and the consignee will be responsible for unloading the salt.

6. In the case of salt issued on credit, no adjustment of an excess or deficit which may be found at the time of weightment will ordinarily be made, unless the difference exceeds 10 per cent of the weight of salt shown in the indent, or unless the issue of the excess would cause the credit account of the indenter to be overdrawn. The value of the salt actually issued will be debited to the account of the indenter.

7. In all other respects except as regards the supply of and payment for bags the procedure laid down in Notification C.-506 shall be followed, and the rules of the said Notification shall be applicable to the purchase and issue of unbaged salt.
